A man is known by the company He keeps.

We naturally seek the company of those whose tastes and habits are same as our own. "Birds of a feather flock together." Fools don't like the company of wise man, and wise man avoid fools saints do not relish the company of sinners, and Sinners shun the company of saints. The good find li pleasure in the company of bad. Pleasure seekers do not make friends with studious scholars. Honest men shun thieves and cheats we can, therefore, judge a man's character by the kind of company he keeps. If he is always with bad people, we naturally think he likes such company because he is bad himself. For "lambs do not make friends with wolves, nor doves with hawks.

School Life

School is a daily rou for us in the morning. We are sure to make a fuss.

Even when the sun is s not up. Here we are awake at 6 a.m. sharp.

We feel that school is such a bore; we feel that school is such chore. Parents say, "School is great! Now, go!" We say, "Well, what do you know?"

Late a minute and we have to seen Eyes half open, shoelaces undone we reach school and we see our friends, immediately, the torture ends

We have a chat and go with the flow

Then the bell rings, it is to go we may at find school stressful to have some fun, we have to bend some rules.

Talk back to teachers, and detec we serve

No doubt, it is some what we deserve; some they're actually really nice.

They teach us and give us a helping hand

There're forever ready to listen and be a friend.

They have built much confidence in us first now when they are being really harass.

Over the year of educa

Never have we had so much learning with ac

Such a camps, experiments, concerts and ac

We have learnt so much and even saved the trees.

A wise teacher once said aloud success is failure turned inside out

So s to the fight when you're harden hit

Rest if you must, but don't you quit

Some may see school as a torture chambers

Some can't wait for the holidays in December

But it depends on how we look at school

honestly, posi ely, school is cool!
